As we gather here today, let us take a moment to acknowledge the land upon which we stand and the Indigenous Peoples who have stewarded this land since time immemorial. We recognize that our worship space is situated on the traditional territories of the and we extend our gratitude and respect to the Algonquin / Anishinaabe people for their enduring presence and care for this land. In this moment of recognition, we honour the diverse histories, cultures, and spiritualities of the Indigenous Peoples who continue to shape and enrich our communities. We commit ourselves to the ongoing work of reconciliation, healing, and justice, walking alongside our Indigenous brothers, sisters and kin with humility, empathy, and open hearts. As we worship and celebrate together, let us be mindful of our shared responsibility to protect and nurture the land, to honor the wisdom and resilience of Indigenous Peoples, and to cultivate relationships rooted in respect, understanding, and unity. In doing so, we contribute to a more inclusive, equitable, and compassionate world for all.

Hymn: More Voices 145 Draw The Circle Wide

(Words and Music: Gordon Light; Arrangement: Michael Bloss)

Refrain:

Draw the circle wide. Draw it wider still.
Let this be our song, no one stands alone,
Standing side by side,
Draw the circle wide.

1. God the still-point of the circle, 'round
whom all creation turns;
nothing lost, but held forever, in God's gracious arms. Refrain

2. Let our hearts touch far horizons, so encompass great and small;
Let our loving know no borders,
faithful to God's call. Refrain

3. Let the dreams we dream be larger, than we've ever dreamed before.
Let the dream of Christ be in us,
open every door. Refrain

Lighting of Christ Candle:

Acolytes: Tamara Glanville & Mya Wightman

Voice 1: We light this Christ Candle as a symbol of God's enduring love and unceasing presence in our lives. May this flame remind us of Jesus Christ, who illuminates our path and guides us with His teachings of love, compassion, and justice.

Voice 2: As this candle casts its gentle light upon us, help us to recognize and cherish the divine spark in every person we meet. Teach us to nurture this light through acts of kindness, words of encouragement, and deeds of justice.

Sung Response: More Voices 90 Don't Be Afraid

Don't be afraid. My love is stronger,
My love is stronger than your fear.
Don't be afraid. My love is stronger
And I have promised, promised to be always near.

Call to Gather: (Responsively) Rev. Lorrie Lowes

In this sacred space, where love is spoken and grace abounds,

We gather with hearts open and spirits willing.

We come together, diverse in our experiences, united in our purpose,

To celebrate the beauty of creation in all its forms.

Here, where the light of Christ guides us on our journey,

We seek to be reflections of that light in the world.

In a world that often divides, we choose to unite,

Embracing each other with the love and acceptance that Christ showed.

As we celebrate the diversity of God's creation,

We affirm the dignity and worth of every person.

In our worship, in our words, and in our actions,

May we always strive to create a world where all are welcome, all are loved.

Let us worship God, who loves us all beyond measure,

And who calls us to love one another in the same way.

Come, let us worship together!

With joy, with hope, and with love. Amen.

Gospel Reading: John 3:13-21 (The Message)

¹³⁻¹⁵“No one has ever gone up into the presence of God except the One who came down from that Presence, the Son of Man. In the same way that Moses lifted the serpent in the desert so people could have something to see and then believe, it is necessary for the Son of Man to be lifted up—and everyone who looks up to him, trusting and expectant, will gain a real life, eternal life. ¹⁶⁻¹⁸“This is how much God loved the world: He gave his Son, his one and only Son. And this is why: so that no one need be destroyed; by believing in him, anyone can have a whole and lasting life. God didn't go to all the trouble of sending his Son merely to point an accusing finger, telling the world how bad it was. He came to help, to put the world right again. Anyone who trusts in him is acquitted; anyone who refuses to trust him has long since been under the death sentence without knowing it. And why? Because of that person's failure to believe in the one-of-a-kind Son of God when introduced to him. ¹⁹⁻²¹“This is the crisis we're in: God-light streamed into the world, but men and women everywhere ran for the darkness. They went for the darkness because they were not really interested in pleasing God. Everyone who makes a practice of doing evil, addicted to denial and illusion, hates God-light and won't come near it, fearing a painful exposure. But anyone working and living in truth and reality welcomes God-light so the work can be seen for the God-work it is.”

Hear what these words are saying to all of us. We listen and we respond with action.

Reflections: “Love is all that Matters”

Rev. Kim & Griz Morrison

Prayers of the People: Rev. Kim

Loving and Compassionate God, we come before you with our prayers for the world, our community, and ourselves. You have called us to be a people of prayer, and so we lift our voices to you, trusting in your endless mercy and grace. We pray for the world, a place of both beauty and brokenness. We ask for your peace in regions torn by conflict, your sustenance in places marred by poverty and hunger, and your healing in areas devastated by natural disasters and disease. Guide the leaders of nations, that they may make decisions with wisdom and compassion, seeking justice and peace for all. In our community, God, we pray for those who are struggling—those facing illness, grief, loneliness, and anxiety. May they feel your comforting presence and find strength and hope in your unwavering love. We remember those who are marginalized and voiceless, asking that they find advocacy and support in their fight for dignity and respect. We lift up our church and its leaders. Bless our efforts to be a beacon of your love. Guide us in our ministries, that we may be effective in reaching out and touching lives with your grace. Help us to be a community where everyone feels welcomed, valued, and loved. For ourselves, we ask for your guidance in our personal journeys. Help us to grow in faith, to deepen our understanding of your word, and to live out your teachings in our daily lives. Grant us courage to face our challenges, wisdom to make right choices, and a heart always ready to forgive and to seek forgiveness. We remember those who have asked for our prayers, spoken or unspoken. In your abiding love, hear our prayers.

God of all comfort and hope, we also give thanks for the joys and blessings in our lives. Help us to recognize your hand in moments of happiness and grace, and to be thankful for your gifts, big and small. Unite us, O God, in our diversity, and strengthen us in our common purpose. May our prayers lead to actions that reflect your love and justice in the world. We offer these prayers in the name of Jesus Christ who taught and lived love. Amen.

Rev. Lorrie

Beloved in Christ, we now come to a moment of generosity and sharing. In our worship, we not only offer our prayers and praises but also our tangible gifts as a sign of our commitment and gratitude. Each contribution, no matter the size, is an important part of the work we do together as a community of faith.

I now invite you to offer your gifts of time, talents and resources as expressions of your gratitude to God's blessings. You will find the offering plates on the table as you enter the sanctuary. There are many additional ways you can financially support the work of the church – through PAR, by dropping into the office or by e-transfer. Thank you for your continued love and support of Bells Corners United Church.

Offertory Hymn: Voices United 149, verse 4

That were a present far too small;

Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

Offertory Prayer: (Together)

With these offerings, we reaffirm our commitment to follow the teachings of Christ, to love our neighbors as ourselves, and to work tirelessly for justice and equity. May our gifts and our lives be a testament to the transformative power of Your love.

Closing Hymn: More Voices 138 My Love Colours Outside the Lines

(Words and Music: Gordon Light; arr. Andrew Donaldson)

| 1. | My love colours outside the lines, exploring paths that few could ever find;
and takes me into places
where I've never been before,
and opens doors to worlds outside the lines. | | |
| 2. | My Lord colours outside the lines,
turns wounds to blessings, water into wine;
and takes me into places
where I've never been before | 3, 4 | and opens doors to worlds outside the lines.
We'll never walk on water
if we're not prepared to drown,
body and soul need a soaking
from time to time.
And we'll never move the grave-stones
if we're not prepared to die,
and realize there are worlds outside the line |

We have been nourished by word and prayer, and now we are called to action from this place and beyond.

Be agents of change, ambassadors of love, and bearers of light in a world that so desperately needs it. Know that you not go alone. You are accompanied by the love of God, the peace of Christ, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
