It's All Connected! Linkages of GLI to Other Social Justice Issues

Wednesday, May 25, 2022

The evening will be facilitated by Rev Dr Peter Bartlett, Regional Minister Supporting Visioning with Communities of Faith, Clusters, and Social Justice and Outreach Networks for the Eastern Ontario Outaouais Regional Council of The United Church of Canada

The Issues:

Social Justice Linkages to GLI – Charles Barrett, chair of the Social Justice Network of the Ontario Regional Councils, will give an overview of the interaction of the social justice ministries of the United Church across Ontario.

Housing and Homelessness – Sue Smarkala, Chair of the Housing Matters Network, will share her experience of the impact of a GLI on the complex problem of providing housing Indigenous Relations — Nathan Golden is of Wendat & Meskwawi Fox ancestry. He is non-status and is an urban Indigenous person from Ottawa. His father is a residential school survivor. Nathan is a member of the EOORC Righting Relations Network and a member of Woodroffe United Church. experience of a refugee coming to Canada.

Discussion will follow.

"Conversations for Our Times"

Listening to the Cry of Creation: Fashioning an Ecological Spirituality for Our Time
May 29th 2:30 PM by Zoom

Our current environmental crisis is a manifestation of "the cry of creation" according to Simon Appolloni, Assistant Professor with the School of the Environment at University of Toronto and author and editor with Novalis Publishing. In this "down to earth" conversation, he will lay out how Creation is at the heart of Christian spirituality, as he encourages us to take up Pope Francis' urging for us to listen to the cry and to embrace this understanding of our faith. We invite you to participate in this uplifting discussion about one of the most crucial issues facing our world today.
