Ross Mutton has placed a Memorial Bench by the labyrinth in memory of Gail. Gail was an avid supporter of the labyrinth from the beginning. Many times she walked that labyrinth, as well as the one in the Main Hall. To commemorate that connection, it seemed fitting to install a bench in her memory - a place where one could sit and contemplate. The phrase "Life is Good, Live It" was something she said almost daily - not just words, but a passion for how we should go forth.

The BCUC Book Club will meet in the Shalom Room on Wednesday, September 20th at 1:30 p.m. We will discuss Shrines of Gaiety by Kate Atkinson. Light refreshments will be served. All are welcome, even if you haven't read the book. Come and check us out!

Sunday School has resumed. In order to make this possible, we desperately need more Sunday School Teachers and a Youth Group Leader. Please consider offering a gift of your time to ensure that our children and youth have the best possible faith formation experience. There is lots of support provided - prepared lesson plans and materials and a sharing of responsibility. We have a wonderful group of children and youth here at BCUC; let's show them how much we value them as a vital part of our faith family! Please speak to Rev. Lorrie for more information and to be a volunteer.

BCUC Name Tags may be ordered by contacting the office. The price remains the same, i.e. pinback is $12 and magnet back is $16.

Electronic Sign Fundraising Update: An anonymous donor has pledged to match donations up to $5,000. The updated total of givings plus pledged (which includes the matching commitment) is $30,740. That represents 98% of total cost. We are well on our way to meeting the expected cost of $31,500! The project is underway. Watch for further updates and continue with your generous donations!

Affirming Ministries are congregations within the United Church that make an ongoing commitment to justice and inclusion and publicly declare in words and actions, that God loves and accepts people who are gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, queer or two-spirited. They call upon the rest of the church and society to do the same. There is interest here at BCUC in exploring what it would mean for us to become an Affirming Ministry. With the blessing of the BCUC Board, the plan is to engage the congregation in a process of education, reflection and discernment, beginning next fall. Anyone interested in being part of a working group that would lead the process, please speak to Susan Young (613-619-2724). We will have the guidance and support of Affirm United, the United Church's partner. For more information about Affirm United and reasons to consider becoming an Affirming Ministry, please visit: http://ause.ca/wp-content/pdf/BecomingAffirmingFlier\_English.pdf
